

The Library

The library is my favorite place,
Cause it has books from case to case.
Full of books on every shelf,
I even learned about myself.
Every book there makes me think,
And there my brain will not shrink.
Some books are made of laughter,
And others are full of sorrow.
Rarely, they make you scream,
And make you not even borrow.
I've traveled to south 'pole to the north 'pole,
Even to the mind of a coal.
The library is my favorite place
I hope you too enjoy this place.
